Who is paying for the shuttle? The primary source of funding for “the buc” is local tax dollars collected through the Buckhead Community Improvement District. Additional funding for the system is Federal Transit money that comes to the system through the Georgia Regional Transit Authority.

Will a shuttle stop if I flag it down but am not at a stop? No. Due to liability issues, the vehicles will not be allowed to pick up or drop off passengers at locations other than specifically designated shuttle stops.

Can I wait inside the building lobby if the weather is bad? Yes, the stops were specifically located so you can do this – just make sure to catch the driver's attention to let them know you are boarding – sometimes you may not be easy to spot!

What do the numbers on the stop signs mean? The printed route maps show numbered stops. These numbers correspond to the numbers indicated on the shuttle stop signs at the designations. The route runs sequentially.

Where can I find real time information about when the next vehicle will arrive? “The buc” vehicles are equipped with GPS technology which allows them to be tracked in real time. You can access the information by the website, www.bucride.com, or by using your smart phone to follow the QR code link on the stop sign.

How do I take advantage of reduced fare MARTA passes available through BATMA? By participating in a volume discount program offered by MARTA, BATMA is able to provide monthly transit passes for Buckhead commuters at a reduced fare. You can work with us directly or enjoy greater discounts by getting your employer to allow you to use pre-tax payroll dollars. For more information contact Calvin@batma.org to get started.
